

Celebrating 125 Years

This year, the State Medical Board of Ohio celebrates its 125th anniversary of public service to Ohioans. The Medical Board was established in February 1896 and today regulates more than 92,000 physicians and other health care professionals.

The Medical Board will work relentlessly to accomplish its mission of public protection through effective medical regulation.

For more information, updates and helpful resources, visit med.ohio.gov.

State Medical Board of Ohio